Civil War Patriotic Tokens

Lot #		Description	Grade		Comments / Estimate
117	P	134/283 b	R9	MS63	20% Bright. Two very rare popular dies Lincoln Redeemed and Eagle and Anchor struck in Brass. This is the only example in my data base. In a NGC holder graded MS63. (6,000-8,000)
118		135/440 a	R2	AU	Bisecting die crack. (25-50)
119		135/441 a	R2	EF	(<25)
120		136/397 a	R1	EF+	Beware Snake. (25-50)
121		138/255 a	R2	VF	McClellan. (25-50)
122		138A/150 a	R6	MS64	Trace Red. Two very scarce dies, McClellan and Pendleton. In a NGC holder graded MS64 BN. (750-1,000)
123		141/307 a	R1	EF	Crude McClellan. (25-50)
124		143/261 a	R1	AU	But very weak obverse near rims. Interesting die polish marks on reverse that I don't recall seeing before, very late die state. McClellan. (25-50)
125	P	147/227 a	R8	MS60	Nicely toned and Proof Like surfaces but with light hairlines, one obverse spot and a few tiny spots. Popular Pilgrim I Am Ready 1861 token. Normally seen in Brass of Silver Plated Bass and often in low grades, this very rare Copper specimen is the first I have seen offered. (750-1,000)
126		151/430 a	R1	EF	Light reverse scratch. (<25)
127	P	153/(Steel Die)	Unl	EF	Original steel die for Benjamin Franklin Patriotic Civil War token number 153. One of only a handful of original dies still in existence, the only others that I am aware of are 123, 129, 131 and 174. All have been used at one time or another to make fantasies. Uniface silver examles of die 123, 1939 CSNS tokens used the 129 die, uniface White Medal and counterstamped examples of 131 and uniface Aluminum and Gold examples of die 174 are all know. Even the 153 die was used to counterstamp primarily Large Cents. Actual Civil War uses are so rare that the counterstamped Large Cents have long been collected with the series and when offered routinely bring $500 or more. As for struck Civil War tokens, an EF+ example of 153/519B e brought $1,650 in my December 2006 sale, this obviously unique piece should bring many times that figure. Truly a once in a lifetime opportunity to acquire an actually Civil War token die. (4,000-6,000)

131		160/417 a	R4	EF	Residue traces. Liberty For All 1864 with eagle perched on cannon. Struck by Mossin and Marr of Milwaukee. (50-75)
132		165/400 a	R5	VF	Indiana Primitive. (75-100)
133		165/400 a	R5	EF	Indiana Primitive version of the Union shield die 163 although Union isn't so much spelled out on the shield as it is represented by a series of thick vertical lines. (100-150)
134		167/435 a	R7	AU	Trace Red a bit weakly struck with some very light scratches or flaws. Two very scarce dies. (150-175)
135		168/311 a	R1	AU	Popular cannon token. (50-75)
136		169/213 a	R2	EF	Peace Maker cannon. (50-75)
137		175/232 a	R6	MS60	20% Red but with small punch mark on head pushing up slightly on reverse. Very rare Indiana Primitive variety in this condition, without the punch this would likely be worth $750 or more. (200-300)

761 P	MILLER NY 238	MS62	20% Bright. Female Preventive Or Morsonic Amulet. Unlike the more commonly known Boyd's Battery who's wearer was promised purified blood, this Amulet was apparently worn or carried by a pregnant woman to assure a male (More Sons) rather than a female birth. Perhaps this unusual composition was needed to generate the needed magnetic or electric fields required to perform the advertised task.
